We, the Class of 1978, in order to show our deepest appreciation and gratitude to Mr. William H. Spohn dedicate the 1978 Centurion in his honor.

Mr. Spohn was a true friend who was always there when we needed him. His unselfish dedication and loyalty were inspirations to all those who knew him.

We wish him good luck and happiness in the future.

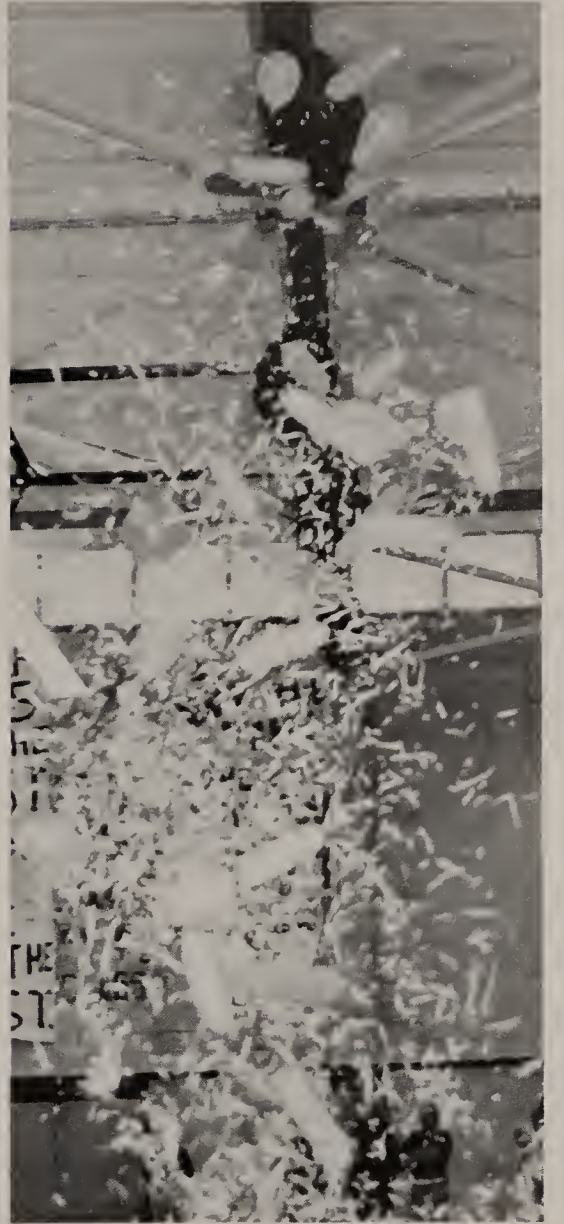

*THERE ARE PLACES
I'LL REMEMBER ALL MY LIFE,
THOUGH SOME HAVE CHANGED
SOME FOREVER,
SOME ARE GONE
AND SOME REMAIN ...*

...ALL THESE PLACES HAD THEIR MOMENTS WITH LOVERS AND FRIENDS.

*I CAN STILL RECALL
IN MY LIFE
I'VE LOVED THEM ALL.*

THOUGH I KNOW I'LL NEVER LOSE AFFEC-TION
 FOR PEOPLE AND THINGS THAT WENT BE-FORE,
 I KNOW I'LL OFTEN STOP AND THINK ABOUT THEM
 IN MY LIFE ...

Let me live in my house by the side of the road
 Where the race of men go by;
 They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,
 Wise, foolish — so am I.
 Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat,
 Or hurl the cynic's ban?
 Let me live in my house by the side of the road
 And be a friend of man.

Sam Walter Foss

ATTENDANCE OFFICE ASSISTANTS

The attendance office assistants run errands and aid Mrs. Start in keeping the office in order. Advisor: Mrs. Start.

GUIDANCE OFFICE ASSISTANTS

These individuals work in both the guidance office and the career resource center, delivering passes and performing other helpful tasks for the counselors. Advisor: Mrs. Bianaccuci.

MAIN OFFICE ASSISTANTS

These students voluntarily give up their free periods, to work in the main office. They assist the administration and school staff in various errands and jobs. Advisor: Mrs. Whitlock.

LIBRARY AIDS

These individuals assist the students, the Librarian and the assistant Librarian in the operation of the library.

NURSE'S ASSISTANTS

These girls report to the Health Room to assist the nurse. Each girl comes on a scheduled basis. The girls aid in providing coverage for the Health office during lunch periods, straightening and cleaning the office, along with a variety of clerical tasks. Advisor: Mrs. Ryan.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is open to all students who have had previous courses in Home Economics. They do various projects and encourage social activity in their department and community. Advisor: Mrs. Niederwerfer.

DECA

The Distributive Education Clubs of America is designed to develop future leaders for marketing and distribution. Deca members attend competitive conferences and do individual and group research studies. Advisor: Mr. Myette.

FBLA

This club is offered to all students. The purpose of the Future Business Leaders of America is to develop the qualities of business and civic leadership. These students engage in many important services for the High School. They are involved in ticket sales, selling candy at the basketball games, and acting as guides at open house. Advisor: Mr. Bordonaro.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

The American Field Service is a program of Exchange Students, both to and from our country. The purpose of the student chapter is to aid and assist the Adult Chapter in raising funds. They organize such events as the AFS spaghetti dinner, AFS fruit sale and various parties. Advisor: Mr. Locario.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council serves as the government of the students and acts as a vehicle of communication between them and the administration. The President, a senior, and the Vice-President, a junior, are elected by the student body the year preceding the term of office. The rest of the council is composed of class representatives.

MATH AIDES

These students spend varying amounts of time assisting the departments in a variety of ways.

CHEERLEADING

These ten girls (missing Liz Johnston, Patti Jowski) have given much of their time and effort into making this years squad a good one. They have frequent practices after school and attended most of the sports events. Advisors: Miss Kallman, Miss. Silverman

WORLD AFFAIRS CLUB

These students participate in a model U.N. Assembly, a trip to the U.N. and in various fund raising projects. Advisor: Mr. Randazzo

PEP SQUAD

The main idea behind this group is to promote school spirit. The members put in time at the school's sports activities and they also sell banners, pins, ribbons, and other boosters at our home games. Advisor: Miss. Parys.

MATH TEAM

The members of the math team compete regularly in the Capitol Area Mathematics League, and the ATPAC test taken in school. Many of the members have had one year of college algebra. Advisor: Mr. Joy.

COMPUTER CLUB

The computer club introduces students to the computer in an informal manner. Through experience, club members are taught fundamentals of operating this machine. Advisor.: Mr. Cloutman.

MEDIA SERVICE SQUAD

Media Service Squad is a group open to all students who have free periods during the time which media help is needed. The club consists of maintaining, operating and repairing the schools audio equipment. Advisor: Mr. Schackner.

OUTING CLUB

This club is open to all students in the school. Throughout the year they engage in ski trips, hiking and horse back riding. Advisor: Mr. Rioux.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Wood Chapter of the National Honor Society is a service organization composed of hand picked junior and seniors. These students are picked on the basis of four attributes; Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. Each winter the new members are chosen. The activities of the society include tutoring teacher aides and other various duties during the year.

CONCERT BAND

This organized group of musicians provides our school with music and school spirit. They play in concerts, at pep rallies, home football games, at June graduation, and they also march at the parades. Director: Mr. Lazzerini.

SOPHOMORE JUNIOR CHORUS

This chorus is open to sophomores and juniors. They sing various pieces and have a good time. Director: Mr. Lesbines.

CONCERT CHORUS

Concert Chorus is composed of all students. They perform in three major concerts throughout the year. The music selections are Traditional and Popular. Director: Mr. Lesbines.

*JUNIOR

OFFICERS.*

The students in this club try to recognize the requirements of good reporting. Every month this club puts out a school paper. The paper reflects the opinions, facts, and interviews of the students. Advisor: Mr. Garro.

You are my love
and my life,
You are my inspiration;

On May 7, 1977 the class of 78 held
their Junior Prom,
"Just You And Me"
At the Red Coach Restaurant.
The band was Odyssey.

Just you 'n' me,

Simple and free,
Baby, you're ev'rything
I've ever dreamed of,

Give me your own special smile,
Promise you'll never leave me.
Just you 'n' me,
Simple and free,

We are the music makers,
And we are the dreamers of
dreams,
Wandering by lone sea-breakers,
And sitting by desolate
streams;

World-losers and world-forsakers,
On whom the pale moon gleams:
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world for ever it seems.

You haven't seen
